Exhibitors' catering

During the day, you will receive all kinds of drinks, breakfast, a lunch snack, and coffee and cake at the counter.

The exhibition is intended to be a private event. Therefore, we attach great importance to introducing ourselves to one another and providing visitors' addresses along with all the information on the registration form. Data protection is, of course, guaranteed.

Whereabouts of the animals:

Only animals that have been accepted for evaluation by the animal reception are allowed in the exhibition premises.

Animals that may be eliminated before judging can be housed in an adjoining room. Please ensure that no animals are left on the floor.

The animals can remain in the hall overnight into Sunday.

For those arriving on Friday, animals can be housed in the hall from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM.

Please remember to care for the animals!

Tender:

Animal Arrival:

Saturday, October 24, 2026, 8:00 AM to 10:00 AM, registration in the hall.

We ask our guests to adhere to the time limits, as approximately 1.5 hours should be available for inspection and distribution after the animal judging.

The animals will be judged by the E.P.V.C. judges.

The start time will be announced by the show management.

The awards ceremony will take place after the show.

Entry Fee:

We charge a fee of €18 for 1 to 3 animals, and €6 for each additional chinchilla.

Exhibitors must bring their own display cages. Prepared cages may be rejected.

Rental cages are available in exceptional cases. A €3 deposit is required per cage. Upon return, €0.50 will be retained to cover costs.

Admission for visitors not exhibiting animals is €6.00 - children are free.

Conditions of Participation:

Exhibition animals must be healthy. Obviously sick or abnormally well-bred animals will be rejected upon entry.

Any manipulation of the exhibition animals at any stage of judging may lead to disqualification.

The entry fee is non-refundable.

Please do not mark the exhibition animals with ear tags, tattoos, or other markings!

The judges' decisions cannot be appealed.

No liability is assumed for the exhibited animals. Legal recourse is excluded.

Corrections to cage labels cannot be made after the animals have been handed over.

By signing the registration form, the exhibitor accepts the above conditions.

Each exhibitor receives a certificate

According to the Veterinary Office, an animal fair requires a permit, which is required when animals are offered for sale, bought/sold, or exchanged. (According to Section 11 Paragraph 1 No. 7 of the Animal Welfare Act.)

The association therefore points out that these activities must be avoided in the rented premises and during the event.

Furthermore, the association points out that photos of animals and visitors – including cell phone photos – may only be taken with the permission of the show management!

By signing the registration form, the exhibitor confirms that they will comply with the conditions and are personally liable for any violations.

We wish you a safe journey and every success!
